

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

The consolidation of media sources in the hands of a few poses a significant threat to the working of our democracy. At this critical time in our nation's history, we need more diversity of ownership and opinion, not less.